EMILIA

Hi my name is Emilia Sanchez.
Today is the first day of school;
I hope everything goes as planned.
See both of my parents are military I've been dragged around the world since I was born and when we finally got stationed in the states it was a small town outside of Boston. It was one of those places where everybody knows your name and its one of everything in town. I barely got out of high school with all my hair, don't ask long story. So when I got into college I ran straight to a big city hoping that I can be invisible for a change.
Well that didn't happen I got the roommate from hell and they remind me everyday how different I really am. Like no soy tu mascota estúpido idiota. Anyway, I digress. Welcome to my life.
